Acting Titles: Acting appointments typically address 1 of 3 important needs: temporary instruction requiring someone with significant professional training (e.g., PhD), a temporary bridge for professorial faculty who have not yet completed regular appointment requirements, or a temporary transition period between post-doctoral training and mentoring and entry into the professorial ranks (UW Faculty Code Section 24-34 B.14). The acting designation is used with professorial ranks or the instructor title.

Affiliate Appointments: Individuals who maintain principal employment outside UW or UW's academic units may be eligible for an affiliate appointment that would allow them to contribute to the teaching and/or research mission of the University. Affiliate appointments are not intended for regular UW compensation or to be benefits eligible. As noted below, appointments are possible in a faculty context as provided for in the Faculty Code, or in postdoctoral contexts. The Academic HR Separations page outlines conditions under which UW faculty who have separated can be appointed as affiliate faculty.

Clinical Titles: Clinical appointments are made to individuals whose training/experience positions them to make valuable contributions to the clinical teaching mission of the University. Clinical faculty appointees have comparable qualifications to other UW faculty with the same title or rank. There are both salaried and non-salaried clinical titles. However, clinical faculty appointments are usually made to individuals who have primary appointments with outside agencies or non-academic UW units, or who are in private practice. Clinical associates and clinician researchers are academic staff who are not faculty, librarians, residents, fellows, or postdoctoral scholars (APS 40.1).

Emeritus Appointments and Re-employed Retirees
Emeritus: Upon retirement from the University, both faculty and librarians may be considered for emeritus status, a lifelong designation that recognizes achievements of those with meritorious records. It is expected that consideration of an emeritus appointment will be made by the appointing unit at the time of retirement. Re-employed Retirees: UW faculty and librarians who retire, but who do not hold emeritus status, may partially re-employ after retirement using the titles/ranks in the table below.
